Redistricting could put Lemon Grove in Williams' District 4; Bailey vows to fight move

Some twenty cities and communities in San Diego County, including Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, could be moved to new County supervisorial districts as a result of the upcoming boundary adjustments of the five districts.

From June 18-26, five public meetings will be held throughout the County to garner input from communities on the various changes under consideration, due to the redistricting which is required of county government every ten years, following the federal census.

This year, the redistricting effort will be impacted by the need to move some 100,000 residents from the rapidly-growing North County district.

The new boundaries, which are to be adopted by the Board of Supervisors by October 1, will determining the district within which a citizen votes, beginning with the June 1992 primary election. County planners have produced six alternative maps, all of which appear to transfer Lemon Grove from George Bailey's District 2 to Leon Williams' District 4, and some shift all or part of Spring Valley from District 2 to District 1.

However, according to Bob Lerner, public affairs manager of the County, none of the six redistricting plans would divide Spring Valley or any other community or city.

"One thing we made sure of going into this, was that no community anywhere in the County would be divided," said Lerner.

Yet, others who have seen the maps, including 2nd District Supervisor George Bailey, have concluded that the portion of Spring Valley north of Highway 94 would indeed be split from the rest of the community in two of these maps, and that probably those who determined these alternatives "don't know where Spring Valley is." Bailey also commented on the "stupidity" of taking Lemon Grove and Spring Valley out of an East County District where they have become part of a community sphere. "Both these communities have established ties to other East County communities, and would lose these associations if placed in other districts," said Bailey, adding both communities currently are part of the East County Economic Development Council.

Lerner stated that much input is expected and invited at the public hearings. "We anticipate that the various local planning groups and other community groups and members will offer suggestions; our redistricting maps will be serving as springboards for discussion - it's better to start with something to show rather than with a blank canvas," Lerner commented.

The public meetings, all of which begin at 6:30 p.m. will be held as follows: June 18 - Escondido City Council Chambers; June 19 - Al Bahr Shrine Temple in Kearny Mesa; June 20 - La Mesa City Council Chambers; June 24 - Chula Vista City Council Chambers; and June 26 - War Memorial Building, Balboa Park.

Alternative maps showing the various changes under consideration will be displayed at each meeting and are now on display at the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

Dr. Amorita Treganza, second from left, installed the officers for 1991-92 for the Lemon Grove Historical Society. Officers from left to right are: Frenchy Faucher, first vice president; Virginia Dugas, secretary; Pete Smith, president; Betty Hunter, second vice president in charge of membership; and John Davis, treasurer.

Smith re-elected president of Historical Society

In this day of recycling, the Lemon Grove Historical Society has taken the effort a step further - they have recycled, or re-elected, many of the individuals that have served so diligently for the past year.

Lemon Grove luminary, Dr. Amorita Treganza (a past president) installed the Society's 1991-92 officers with a touch of celestial wisdom:

"Webster defines "moonlighting" as the practice of holding a second regular job in addition to one's main job. I am sure your outgoing officers will agree that they are fully experienced in this practice. Webster also defines "moon" as the heavenly body that revolves around the earth. He could have had in mind the many members of many other historical societies all working toward the same goal: to define and protect our heritage. It's my pleasure to assign a star to each incoming moonlighter."

Past and future treasurer, John Davis, was assigned the star, Arcturus, "the guard." Past president and secretary, Virginia Dugas, was once again elected secretary; her star -actually, stars Castor and Pollux -- are from the constellation, Gemini. This is fitting, since she will perform double duties: recording and correspondence.

Local nursery owner, Betty Hunter, was re-elected second vice president. Her star is Libra, the "balance," as she must balance the membership - both past, present, and hopefully, future.

First vice president in charge of programing is Frenchy Faucher, another recycled past president. He was given the star, Aldebaron, from the constellation Taursus, meaning "to follow." He will trail the president in all duties and Society plans.

Last, but not least, Pete Smith, past president, was elected to a consecutive term. He was given two stars to emulate: the Sun, "because it is visible from sunrise to sunset," and Sirius, "as it is the brightest star in the heavens. These two stars completely encircle the earth 24 hours a day "which you may find yourself devoting to the Society either in time, effort, or thoughts."

Past first vice president, Eva Pinkham, and secretary, Karen O'Rourke, were thanked for their dedicated service the previous year, as all were toasted with cookies and coffee.

Pizza Hut's eighth annual car show is a big success for local nutrition centers

On Sunday, the Valley Grove Nutrition Centers which now serve Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and La Mesa, raised about $3,000 from Pizza Hut's eighth annual classic car show held at Rancho San Diego Village Shopping Center.

Funds raised will serve as seed money for the Adult Day Health Care sponsorship program, according to Lourdes Contreras administrator of the Nutrition Centers, and will enable seniors who otherwise could not afford the program to participate.

"We raised twice as much money this year as we did last year; I think the participation of the merchant's association and the increased participation of the car clubs helped," commented Contreras.

Pizza Hut donated the sales from their outdoor booth to the Center, and additional money was raised by the Center's bake sale, said Contreras.

Concrete block group elects Chubb

Gene Chubb, co-owner of R.C.P.Company, Inc., Lemon Grove, recently was installed as first vice president of the Concrete Masonry Association of California and Nevada, at its annual meeting. The association, composed of concrete block manufacturers, is dedicated to advancing the cause of concrete masonry products. The meeting was held in Santa Barbara.

'Pocket park' being designed

Van Dyke & Associates is currently progressing with the design phase for an urban "pocket park" project for Lemon Grove.

Passing between two retail buildings, an attractive pedestrian access way is planned to link a variety of businesses and shops fronting Broadway Avenue with the planned municipal parking area. The pedestrian link is part of an overall downtown Revitalization Master Plan, previously developed by Van Dyke & Associates last fall. Design concepts emphasize elements for pedestrian comfort, including overhead shade structures. palms for vertical accent, flowering canopy trees and seating areas. To conserve water, all plants will be drip irrigated and drought-tolerant. Design completion and approvals of the pedestrian link are anticipated soon, with construction scheduled for completion by August, 30.

Personal comments of Councilman Bob Burns

A recent TV spot by one of the local media personalities featured our city. Larger than life, Larry Himmel swept through town with his camera crew and interviewed some of our populace in his usual cursory manner, replete with snide remarks and quick assumptions.

While, it has to be said that he treated us somewhat better than the last time he conducted one of his small city bashings, he did make one assertion that just has to be refuted. Contrary to his comments, the Lemon is not being moved.

After all of the expense and the accommodation by M.T.D.B., it is located in a perfect spot and will be there for a long time to come.

Featuring our famous Lemon Grove Pastry Shop and the Tonsorial Parlor, the piece portrayed some of our fine local citizens in their natural work places and showed off our unique plaza with the best possible exposure of the Lemon. Pastry shop girls, Rita, Kim, Bea, Barbara and Deanna, showed the world that all of the pretty girls are not in Hollywood. I couldn't believe that Larry could turn down one of Lennart's brownies, but then, he does do some funny things, occasionally.

Frenchy and Naomi Faucher are the typical "Lemon Grovans," and were a perfect choice to comment on our hometown. Frenchy was our postmaster for many years, a muckety muck in Kiwanis, and both he and his wife were part of just about every civic undertaking that ever was in Lemon Grove. Silvia, the best-looking barber in town, certainly gives class to the profession, and is a perfect buffer to her employer, Bill Ware, who tends to get wild ideas that continually feed the rumor grist mill of Main Street.

The last time Larry did his thing in Lemon Grove, he took it upon himself to test my claim that we were a friendly town. He thrust his aggressive face, nose to nose, with pedestrians on Broadway, and in a loud voice, said something like, "Hello, are you friendly?" Most surprised citizens recoiled and declined to answer such a pushy guy. From this, he opined, "This is being friendly?" The truth is, that we are a friendly town, except to a few goofy intruders on our turf.

For the last time, I hope, WE ARE NOT MOVING THE LEMON. The depot, circa, 1900, the trolley and the Lemon, are properly placed and we have the distinction of having the best and most unique town center in the County. I don't care what Larry Himmel thinks, I know this to be true, and I'll bet anyone a "double double" In-N-Out Burger that Allison Ross or Carol LeBeau would not share Himmel's view of our town. I certainly hope that out-of-towners consider the source, and will visit the "friendly" town with the "Best Climate on Earth," to prove it. A sidebar to all of this, is the fact that a man in Washington,D.C., who was moving to Southern California, consulted the Library of Congress and the U. S. Weather Bureau for info in making his choice. He was officially informed that Lemon Grove, CA, had the best climate on earth. So there, Larry!

Councilman Bob Burns will address matters of concern to Lemon Grove and its citizens. If you have questions or suggestions for Dr. Burns, send them to P.O. Box BB, Lemon Grove, CA 91946.

Vacation Bible School next at Lemon Grove Lutheran

Both youth and adults are looking forward to Vacation Bible School at Lemon Grove Lutheran Church. From June 24-28, classes will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and offer crafts, videos and projects for Tijuana children for all age groups. Enrollment has already begun; if your child is not yet enrolled, call the church office at 465-7301.

Recognition for the teachers of regular Sunday school youngsters was given at the June 9 services. Rev. E.J. Volkmann said: "I am always surprised at the number of people, especially young men, who are willing to devote their Sundays to working with our children; this year I was even more surprised at the large number. Thank God for them!"

Those recognized with a certificate were Becky McGowan, Carol Olsen, Phil Anderson, Chirs Erlandson, Tim Johnson, Pastor Volkmann, Sam Thomas, Lissa Johnson, Stewart Barnard, Janelle Richman, Jenny Vaughn, Lydia Peterson, Michelle Olsen, Lynn McBride, Jacquie Hanson, Steve McBride and Donna Chase. To complete the emphasis on youth, two babies were baptized at the regular services: Lindsay Alyse Springsteen, daughter of Greg and Linda Springsteen, and Tylene Marie Hardy, daughter of Thomas and Darrin Hardy.

A picnic on the church lawn, celebrated the end of the Sunday School year.

OTD Costume Contest

We would like to thank the judges again this year for doing an excellent job of selecting the winners of the Costume Contest. Nancy Shuster, firefighter, Charlie Lewis (better known as "Hundred Dollar Charlie") and Bruce Brackmann, captain of the group, were three of our volunteer judges. Colleen Ruis, Chamber President, and Cherie Smith also volunteered to give their artistic evaluation to the morning fun and games. We thank you all for a job well done. It was Bernadine's Hair World in 1st place, with a very close 2nd from the folks at Lemon Grove Pawn Shop. The Bank of America came in 3rd place this time. Lots of fun for everyone.

We hope more of our businesses will get bit by "The Dress-Up-Bug" for next year. Participants and customers enjoy the event and everyone involved has a good time. Think about next year, these guys need more competition.

May Sundowner hosted by Smart & Final

The May Sundowner was sponsored by SMART & FINAL. It was an enjoyable evening. The S&F folks are very friendly and lots of fun. It was a good evening, filled with many surprises. The Chamber Fishbowl was won by Wally Dorman, of Dorman and Dorman Law Offices. Wally donated his winnings back to the Chamber, confusing young Warren Ruis, Chamber President Colleen Ruis' son, who was having a little problem with the higher finances of the Chamber. Warren, a kindergartner, is very quick when it comes to figures. He wanted to know why the Chamber staff was taking all the money and he was making sure everything was accounted for. Thanks, Warren, for helping out with the last-minute accounting. We will have to put you on the payroll.

June Sundowner at Union Bank

The June Sundowner will be held at the Union Bank on June 26th. The time is from 5:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. If you haven't had time to attend our Sundowners, now would be an excellent opportunity for you or a neighboring business to join in. It gets a little warm the end of June, so you can be sure to cool off and relax before making the drive home. Join your peers and do some networking. Union Bank manager, Ron Stillman and his friendly crew will be there to greet you. This is going to be an evening you won't want to miss. So, mark your calendar and don't forget. If you need a little reminder and want to be called the morning of the Sundowner, just call the Chamber Office and Joyce will put you on her "Remember List.". 469-9621

Pizza for good grades

John Vourexis, owner of Leone's is rewarding elementary students from grades 1 to 5 who have shown exceptional work. To receive your "free pizza", bring your final June, 1991 report card to Leone's Italian Restaurant for verification, on any day except Friday and Saturday, for in-house dining, and enjoy a delicious pizza of the indicated size: All A's = Large Pepperoni Pizza; A's & B's = Medium Pepperoni Pizza; All B's = Small Pepperoni Pizza; and A's, B's, & C's = Small Pepperoni Pizza As you can see, you don't have to have straight A's to be a winner. If your school doesn't use the ABC system, don't worry, John will figure out the system so you won't miss out. Thanks John for thinking of a reward system like this.

Old Time Days thank you

Thank you...To all the merchants that helped defray the expense by sponsoring the marching bands for the Old Time Days Parade.

We had four school bands attend this year and the judges selected award winning Mt. Miguel as the best band of the day. They never fail to put on a good show, and we appreciate the effort necessary to march in our city parade. Although Lemon Grove Middle School came in second, they sounded and looked like the champions they are. Did you notice the sharp looking new uniforms the young musicians were wearing? Those youngsters always make gooseflesh appear like magic when they pass by playing their marching music. You were all lookin' good!!

Thanks to the Helix Highlands Band and San Ysidro for also performing in the parade.

We thank you all for making OTD 1991 the best.

Skyline Wesleyan getting ready to celebrate

Skyline Wesleyan Church in Lemon Grove will present its 5th annual "I Love America" patriotic sight and sound extravaganza from June 28 through July 6. This fund-raising effort hopes to raise $10,000 for the downtown San Diego Serviceman's YMCA.

Featuring a cast of over 200 costumed singers, fully-orchestrated sound tracks and dynamic light effects, the event will include an "Armed Forces" medley with representatives from all branches of the service, with a special tribute to those who served in Operation Desert Storm. Also, the finale will feature "indoor" fireworks.

Fourteen performances will be offered, with tickets at $7.50 each. To order tickets, call 460-5000. Most performances will be at 7:30 p.m., with some afternoon performances offered on weekends at 1:30 and 4:30. p.m.
